SCOTLAND'S FESTIVAL OF
VOCAL & CHORAL MUSIC

25 – 28 OCTOBER

2018

www.standrewsvoices.com

THURSDAY 25 OCTOBER

SHINE – Science Meets Opera

FREE

5.30pm, Byre Theatre

Byre Opera takes you on a journey back to the 18th century when Issac Newton was at the height of his scientific powers and opera was the pinnacle of artistic expression. Discover how Newton's theories of light and colour play out in English baroque composer John Eccles' opera 'The Judgement of Paris' (1701), and how this assists modern-day astronomical discovery. A unique, synesthetic performance, in which a state-of-the-art light installation illuminates the musical content of the opera.

Admission: Free ticketed event – contact the Byre Theatre for details

Approx. running time: 70 mins

FRIDAY 26 OCTOBER

Student Song Concert

FREE

1.10pm, Younger Hall

The University of St Andrews Music Society present a programme of Music Theatre and Classical repertoire sung by vocal students and scholarship holders.

Admission: Free, retiring collection in aid of the charity Music in Hospitals

Approx. running time: 35 mins

Masterclass with Jamie MacDougall & Derek Clark

FREE

3pm, Younger Hall

The voice of classical music broadcasting in Scotland, tenor Jamie MacDougall, and Scottish Opera's Head of Music, Derek Clark, guide aspiring young singers from across Scotland through a variety of repertoire in this public masterclass.

Approx. running time: 140 mins (audience can drop in and out).

Tenebrae – We Will Remember Them

7.30pm, Holy Trinity Church

One of the world's greatest chamber choirs, Tenebrae make their debut in St Andrews with an evocative programme of music to mark the anniversary of the Great War. In addition to Howells' 'Take him Earth for Cherishing' written in memory of JFK, and John Tavener's 'Song for Athene', forever associated with the funeral of Princess Diana, Tenebrae will also perform the Scottish premiere of Judith Bingham's 'A Walk with Ivor Gurney' and the hauntingly beautiful 'Songs of Farewell' by Hubert Parry. An unmissable occasion.

Admission: £24 full price, £20 concession, £5 students and under 26

Approx. running time: 120 mins

Late-night jazz with Zoë Gilby and Andy Champion

FREE

10pm, The Adamson Bar

Grab a drink and take in the delightful sounds of jazz vocalist Zoë Gilby and duo partner, double bassist Andy Champion, with classics from Joni Mitchell, Shelia Jordan, Kate Bush and Pink Floyd, alongside their own compositions.

Approx. running time: 60 mins

SATURDAY 27 OCTOBER

Sing-along – Beauty and the Beast

10am and 12 noon, Byre Theatre Studio

Back by popular demand, this year's sing-along film is Disney's much-loved 'Beauty and the Beast' (original 1991 version). Don't miss the live warm up with members of the University's Gilbert & Sullivan Society. All ages welcome.

Admission: £6 (£19 Family Ticket - 2 adults & 2 children, £3 for any additional children)

Approx. running time: 90 mins

Come & Sing Workshop with Nigel Short

10am, Younger Hall

Your opportunity to sing under Tenebrae founder/director Nigel Short! Open to all keen amateur choral singers, this workshop will feature Parry's 'My Soul There is a Country' from the 'Songs of Farewell' and Bob Chilcott's 'Marriage to My Lady Poverty.'

Admission: £10, free for students under 26 (but ticket required)

Tenebrae Schools' Project

FREE

Morning (see www.standrewsvoices.com for times), V&A Dundee

Following two months of singing coaching, schools from Dundee and Fife present an informal sharing of their work with Tenebrae Associate Artists as part of a joint project with St Andrews Voices and the new V&A Dundee.

Scottish Opera – Opera Highlights

Supported by
The Friends of Scottish Opera

3pm, Byre Theatre

Scottish Opera's Opera Highlights features four fabulous young singers and a pianist. This year, director Daisy Evans takes inspiration from well-known works by Mozart and Donizetti as well as some operatic rarities to present an entertaining afternoon of great music and good company. Sofia Troncoso (Scottish Opera Emerging Artist 2018/19) along with Sarah Champion, Richard Pinkstone and Dawid Kimberg are joined by former Emerging Artist repertoire Jonathon Swinard at the piano.

Admission: £14, £5 students and under 26

Approx. running time: 120 mins

Kathryn Tickell's 'Tales and Tunes' with special guest Adam Holmes

Sponsored by
St Andrews Brewing Co.

7.30pm, Younger Hall

A unique evening of songs, stories and irreplaceable music with folk star and Northumbrian pipe player Kathryn Tickell and friends. Inspired by the landscape, language and history of the north of England, Kathryn and fellow Northumbrians author David Almond and accordionist / clog dancer Amy Thatcher, present a beguiling picture of their home. They are joined by one of Scotland's hottest young folk singers, Adam Holmes, to add his own Scottish heritage to the mix.

Admission: £18 full price, £14 concession, £5 students and under 26

All tickets include a free half-pint of beer!

Approx. running time: 120 mins

SATURDAY 27 OCTOBER

Open Mic Folk Night

Book Reading with David Almond

FREE

1pm, St Katherines Hall, St Leonards Junior School

Best-selling author David Almond reads from a selection of books, including his world-famous children's novel Skellig, and his latest work The Dam – a picturebook inspired by musician Kathryn Tickell's childhood. All ages welcome.

Admission: Free ticketed event - contact Waterstones 01334 477893 to book

Approx. running time: 60 mins

Lauder

2.30pm, Byre Theatre

Popular Scottish tenor and BBC broadcaster Jamie MacDougall fulfils a lifetime ambition to recreate Jimmy Logan's acclaimed 'play with tunes' celebrating the life of Sir Harry Lauder. Paying his own tribute to the Scottish music hall legend who entertained audiences across the globe, MacDougall includes songs such as the ever-popular 'I love a lassie' and 'Roamin' in the Gloamin', as well as stories of Sir Harry's rags-to-riches life. Warm and affectionate, 'Lauder' is a fitting tribute to one of Scotland's biggest stars.

Admission: £14, £5 students and under 26

Approx. running time: 120 mins

'St Andrews Voices is one of the few festivals anywhere to focus entirely on the voice in all its glory. An extraordinary festival. The variety is tremendous.' BBC Radio 3

'St Andrews Voices festival has rightly found a distinctive, valued place among Scotland's wealth of musical events.'
