St Andrews Voices is Scotland's only festival dedicated to the voice. It launched to great acclaim in October 2012 and has been an important and unique annual feature in the nation's cultural calendar since. Its aim is to present high-quality, engaging vocal and choral performances that showcase the voice in a wealth of different guises, including opera, cabaret, Lieder, folk, choral, jazz, early music, contemporary, and more...

With events featuring today's most renowned performers, as well as masterclasses, workshops and family events, St Andrews Voices has proved itself to be a festival of real quality and innovation, and a cultural gem in the region. The support of our donors is vital in continuing this success and developing the wide-ranging work of this special festival. I therefore encourage you to add your own 'voice' to the festival and join our Supporting Voices scheme.
