THURSDAY 22 OCTOBER

Masterclass by John Mark Ainsley

FREE

3.00pm, Younger Hall (North Street)

John Mark Ainsley guides some of the most talented vocal students at Scottish Universities through a variety of repertoire in this public masterclass.

Supported by Fidelio Charitable Trust

Composers' Workshop with Voces8 and Philip Stopford

FREE

7.00pm, St Leonard's Chapel (off South Street)

What does it take to compose a successful piece of choral music? Find out as some of the best practitioners of contemporary choral music, Voces8 and composer Philip Stopford, workshop student choral compositions submitted in response to St Andrews Voices' 2015 Composition Competition.

Supported by Fidelio Charitable Trust

FRIDAY 23 OCTOBER

Song Recital by John Mark Ainsley

7.30pm, Younger Hall (North Street)

John Mark Ainsley is widely recognised as one of the finest tenors of his generation, having enjoyed a long and illustrious career appearing at the world's greatest opera houses and festivals. Together with acclaimed young pianist James Baillieu, he performs a Shakespeare-themed recital with Songs, Chansons and Lieder celebrating the great bard.

Supported by the Cookie Matheson Charitable Trust

Admission: £18, £15 (concessions), £9 (Music Centre members, students, U26)

Voces8 – Lux: Devotions by Candlelight

10.00pm, All Saints Church (North Castle Street)

One of the most accomplished a cappella groups in the world today, Decca artists Voces8, perform an unforgettable hour of chant, polyphony, spirituals and candlelit processions inspired by the theme of light. The programme includes choral masterworks by Byrd, Tallis, Tavener and Mendelssohn, as well as the world premiere of a St Andrews Voices commission by Philip Stopford.

Supported by Fidelio Charitable Trust

Admission: £12, £8 (concessions, students, U26, Music Centre members)

SATURDAY 24 OCTOBER

Sing-a-Long Film – The Jungle Book

10.00am, Byre Theatre (Abbey Street)

A special screening of this classic film for all ages to enjoy! A cappella group The Other Guys will lead the audience in a live warm up and perform their very own Jungle Book song arrangements.

Admission: £6, £4 (concessions, U26, students, Music Centre members)

FAMILY TICKET: (2 Adults, 2 Children): £17.50

Meet the Author with Janice Galloway and Alan Watson

11.00am, Hotel du Vin (The Scores)

Janice Galloway, one of the most gifted Scottish authors of our time, discusses the ways in which music and opera feature in her new collection of short stories. Whilst science writer Dr Alan Watson examines the science behind the singing voice, exploring everything from the lost sound of the castrato voice to the throat singers of the Mongolian steppes.

Admission: £12.50, £10.50 (concessions), £8.50 (U26, students, Music Centre members) including Tea/Coffee and biscuits

Voces8 plus special guests – A Cappella Showcase

3.00pm, Younger Hall (North Street)

Voces8 join forces with legendary St Andrews a cappella ensembles The Other Guys and The Alleycats (performing together for the first time ever!) in this eclectic programme combining ethereal Renaissance music with upbeat Jazz and Pop arrangements. Expect extraordinary voices, expect vocal percussion... but don't expect many free seats if you don't book early!

Supported by J. Michael Buchanan

Admission: £10, £8 (Concessions, U26, students, Music Centre members)

FAMILY TICKET: (2 Adults, 2 Children): £30

Scottish Opera – Così fan tutte

7.30pm, Byre Theatre (Abbey Street)

Take a trip to 1950s Italy in this chic and romantic telling of one of Mozart's best-loved operas, with music as profound as it is light and witty. Directed by Lissa Lorenzo and designed by Robbie Sinnott, this piano-accompanied production features some of the best young singers around, including St Andrews graduate and Scottish Opera Emerging Artist 2015/16, baritone Ben McAteer.

Supported by The Alexander Gibson Circle

Admission: £15, £5 (U26) including booking fee

SUNDAY 25 OCTOBER

Can't Dance Cameron – a Capercaillie Story
